which has already proved itself in over fifty regiments, now at the reat of war near Washington, to be a porttive preventive against sickness in the form of PILIOUS FEVER, DIARRITEA, SMALL POX, and other malarious and infectious diseases. Bear in mind, we say, that RADWAY'S READY RE-

LHES will protect the troops exposed to these diseases against attacks. Now, it is counded by all the medical menth our army the they have no reliable means to prevent attacks of these diseases; neither have they any positive assurance of enring the sick; but, on the contrary, the majority of the sick, selzed with fever and ague, typhoid, tillions, and other fevers, either dis or fluger along, until they are reduced to mere wrecks and walking skeletons. Experience has established the fact that the treatment of calence, quintue, and unroury in cases of the class, is more plurious to converting in mixing the facts. en in our army tha they have no reliable means to of this class, is more injurious in campetina in private practice. When we take into consideration that canvas walls and exposure to heavy deeps and the maintle from pools of water and domp grounds, prove but a poor shelter for the cick, wa may readily conjecture that the ponalties of mercurial and quinine treatment will, in the majority of cases, he exhibited in the form of themnintism, ucuralgia, palms and stiffness in the joints, engorgement of the liver, Jaundice, yellow jaundice, dys-pels a, pteurisy, coughs, cottis, &c., which will rling to the unfortunete patient for years.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 5, 1861. CA press of matter compels us to lay over until to-morrow the letter of our Frankfort corresp. ndent.

We are sorry to be constrained to ac knowledge that the President's Message is on the point of chief solicitude to the conservative men of the country by no means satisfactory. Nay, the message is on this vital point deplorably unsatisfactory. We make the confession frankly, because it is true, and because it behooves the loyal men of the country not only to face the trut, confessed but to firmly onlo with it instantly.

The Point to which we reffer is of course the fiture policy of the Administration with respect to sharery. Concerning this point in its principal asport the message contains the fol-

It is impossible to look upon the as anything more or less than the expression of an iadirect and unmanly concurrence in the policy asserted recently by Col. Cochrane and as wofully as in statesmanship. The manner is as bad as the matter. Both are deeply unworthy. The Free-Lent, without boldly assu- ble; the attack upon Fort Sun, ter, impossible a confiscation law as the anti-slavery zealotdemand, encourages them to go forward and repulse, and, above all, the panie at a easet their law, and, without openly approvthe end they will not be disappointed. The resolution of the Comman-take months (God uncreifully forbid that it should take years) to o pen the eyes of the great associates in command to surrender their body of the people, who have been so strangely swords rather than link them with the in- und fatally misled, and L dispose them to famy of such measures. The first of these seek and to find peace, repose, Protection, and three modes is for the most part beyond prosperity under the old stag of the Union. Results after that were those refer, 'ed to at the but it should not be relied on blindly. The heading of this the last number of a series of last mode is our last hope. When everything papers protracted somewhat beyond the in tended hinits. If the tone of these paper, had been at all declamatory or rhetorical, tables would be the time to plume our wiags for the, is still not directly within their influence. The lofticst it ght, and in that case we could not do better than to dip our pen into the rainbow hues, with which inspired poets have described to pour their awakened energies with a spirit an approaching millenium. But a more proof lofty resolve that will not be put down or saic hut still most pleasing task is ours-t put aside. Here is the sphere wherein the loyal | point out the absolute certainty of peaco remasses of our poople in this crisis of the na- stored upon the hasis of the Union preserved tion's fitte cau work effectually for the untional and the country saved; and from the moment preservation. He would hall it as the strong and all-sustaining echo of his own better but feehlo a hours for the was to be held as a hostage for the safe return of Mr. Magraw, who had then just been taken prisoner at Manassas, having gone within the enemy's lines to arrenge for the recovery of the body of Colonel Cameron. Soon afterward he was transferred to the custody of the State Department, and in reply to his inquiries, Mr. Faulkner was informed by the Secretary of State, that, as Virginia was in rehalion, The Administration had resson to apprehen or su pact, that, were he permitted to return home, his laken's and influence would be arrayed against the National Government, and that therefore, as a measure of precaution, it was thought proper to held so distinguished a person as he was in restraini. We have been informed that Mr. Fanlkner has offered to give his parol that he will not go South during the war, if the (Invertigent require this as n condition of his re-lease. Whether any raply has been made to this suggestion we are not aware. No charge has ever loca made, so far as we are aware, that Mr. Faulkner abused the properties of his position abroad for its large aware, that Mar. According to the statement of our Paris statement of our Paris correspondent, who was in position to be well informed on the subject, his conduct and language, both in official and neofic cial intercourse, were uniformly loyal and correct, and Mr. F. himself, we believe, repels with warmth any imputation that, while helding a diplomatic position under the United States Government, he expressed himself in any way that was inconsistent with his obligations. Unless there are facts connected with his detention which have not count for the procedure in the count of the procedure in the count of the county of have not come to our knowledge, his case seems worthy the favorable consideration of the Secretary of State,—N. Y. Times.

With respect to the conduct of Mr. Faulkner while abrond as a representative of our Government, we have every reason to believe that the statement of the Times is correct. A distinguished Southern lady, whom we met last summer a few days after her return from a sojourn in Europe, informed us that she saw a great deal of Mr. Faulkner in Paris, and that his deportment respecting the unhappy troubles of our country was circumspect in the highest degree. Of rebel proclivities herself, she not unfrequently plied him with questions adapted to bring out his own proclivities, it they set in the same direction, but never, sho assured us, with the smallest success, nll her tact and all her charms failing to elicit from hlm the faintest sign of sympathy with the rebellien. In view of this testimony, corroborative of the statement of the Times, and assuming, as our contemporary 14 informed, that Mr he will not go South daring the war," we en-

The con rabands taken declare that many of those who enlisted in South Carolina were forced to do so, and "that some of the soldiers were brought to Fore Walker chained, refusing to fight, saying that they had no cause to fight no slaves to defend." (lac of the prisoners had ulready asked to take the oath of allegiance and go North, while a 'hers admitted that they had no interest in the quarrel with the beginning of the end, who can refrain from North, but were told if they &'d not volunteer

They have been engaged in open, fligrant violations of the laws of this State and if those laws are enforced these venders of "contrabund" will find that the closure of their drinking saloons is n mild punishment compared to the haes.

Under the law of Kentucky it is a penal offence to sell liquor to a soldier within hive miles of any encampment. The fine for each offence shall not be less than tan dollars nor more than one hundred dollars. Any commissioned officer may bring each case before a magistrate and the law requires him to inflict the panalty when the offance is proved. We call the attention of all interested parlies to this law; they may rest assured that violations of it will meet with prompt punishment. This community will not endure thase entrages any longar.

LATEST ADVICES FROM SOMERSET, -A letter from Somercet, Ky., dated the 1st instant, informs us that the writer, while at Camp Hoskins on that day witnessed a fight at long-tau from one cliff to the other. The rebels came opposite to the camp and fired several volleys at our men, and after each fire retrasted behind a hill. Our little "pop-gun" threw several shells at them, when all became silent. Soon after the firing General Shoeff nrrlved with two pieces of artillery and a squad of cavalry. There are several regimants on the road, which would all arrive within the next day or two. The roads are very had, the river is very high, and the writer thinks there will be no crossing either way for some New Hnven, on Monday, Curran Pope wes days. The present prospect is that the rebels elected Colonel; Geo. P. Jonett, Lieutanantwill be driven into Tennessea, or that a fight will | Colonel; and W. P. Campbell, Major. They ensue. We have later edv'ces than the above from persons who laft Somarset on Monday. They report that when they left the reports of cannon in the direction of Hoskins's Camp were distinctly heard, and it was supposed that the two bodies were engaged.

A BEAUTIFUL SWORD, -- We were permitted lest evening to inspect the beautiful sword which Is to be presented to Gen. Bousseau by the officer of the Louisville Legion. The sword was deeigned by Mr. Hirschhuhl, who skill in his art la too well known and appreciated to require any notice from us. The sword is of regulation size. The bilt is of solid silver, curiously traced with fine etchings, the guard is heavily plated and ornamented with the letters U. S. in the center. The scahhard is of the heaviest plate with mountings end ornamentings of the same. In each of the three monntings is a medallion of soild silver. The first is the coat of arms of Kentucky, the second the Goddess of Liberty, and the lowest a figure of justice. The extremity of the seabbard is adorned with a wreath of an acorn. The hlede is of real Damascus steel, gilt at the hilt end. The inscription reads, "Presented to Lovell H. Rousseau by the officers of the Louisville Legion." Mr. Illrschluhl deserves great credit for the design. He should always he remembered when an occasion of this sort presents itself, for he has no apperior in the city se a workman.

THE GUTHRIE GREYS .- It is well understoo that the Sixth Obio (Guthrio Grey) Regiment, from Cincinnati, encamped neer this city, have been a little irregular in their babits daring the past few days. Many of thom are absent from their eucampment without leave, and some of them even went so far as to visit Cincinnati with nut esking permission. A number of this latter class have returned and reported for duty. We see by the Cincinnati papers that two or three members of the regiment were committed to jai in that city on Tuesday, and that Judge Saffir had orders to retain all who were brought before him. After the expiration of live days from the time of the "stampede," it issaid that Gan, Bnell will take the matter in hand and will Ireat all absentees as deseriers.
